600 years old ! That's the age of the old oak planted on our land, to which the Château pays tribute. It's there to remind us of the estate's history. When my family bought it in 1879, the Chalet Régner, as it was formerly known, grew oak for timber. They replaced these with Uni Blanc vines. I am the fourth generation of the Roy family on the estate to perpetuate our expertise while diversifying. In 1994, I decided to change the name and restructure the vineyard: today, 80% of our 10 hectares are planted with Merlot.

Château Haut Vieux Chêne

BORDEAUX

Village: Saint-Aubin-de-Blaye

Total winegrowing area: 10 hectares

Terroir: Sandy

Winemaking and ageing: Yeasting, pumping over and delestage adapted to suit the structure of the wine. Perfect control of temperatures. Three weeks' fermentation. Aged in cement and stainless steel vats.

Blend: 80 % Merlot, 10 % Cabernet Sauvignon et 10 % Cabernet Franc.

Tasting notes: Clear and bright in colour. The nose is ripe, combining floral notes with fruit and fine minerality. In the mouth the attack is firm and fresh. The structure is pleasant and harmonious both as it develops and in the finish. A delightful wine.

Food and wine pairing: Red meat with sauce
