My father

In 1984, upon my return from military service, I decided to take on my parent's estate in Marcillac, proudly preserving the family legacy. Gradually I expanded and restructured the vineyard that today covers 22.5 hectares.

Château Puy De Guirande

BORDEAUX

Village: Marcillac

Total winegrowing area: 22,5 hectares

Terroir: Soil of sandy gravel

Winemaking and ageing: Pumping over and delestage during fermentation, perfect control of temperatures. Racking after malolactic fermentation followed by aging in concrete vats.

Blend: 70% Merlot, 25% Cabernet Sauvignon et 5% Cabernet Franc.

Tasting notes: The bright garnet color. The pleasing nose offers a delicate combination of fruity and floral notes. On the palate, exceptional full freshness blends with distinctive, mouth-watering tannins evoking licorice.

Food and wine pairing: White meat
